Our Thoughts Remain with Persons . . .

IN MEMORIAM . . . MR. STANLEY ROBSON, MR. MILTON NASH AND NANCY HESTER

There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore;
And bright, in heaven's jeweled crown,
They shine for evermore . . .
And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless universe
Is life . . . there is no dead!

. . . John McCreery

... Beloved and Respected

To one whose character has been one of inspiration to all of us . . . one who has made the interests of all Bell High students her own . . . and has thereby won the love and high esteem of all who have come into contact with her . . . to Dr. Jessie Bailey we respectfully dedicate the 1955 EAGLE.

From

Us, to You

Yes . . . from us, the staff, to you, the students . . . we present these memories Throughout this past year we have endeavored . . . to make this EAGLE something that you will hold . . . as one of your dearest possessions . . . Through it we sincerely hope that you may . . . "recall fond high school memories" . . . of your school dances games . . . clubs . . . plays . . . classmates . . . and graduation . . . Our greatest desire is that this . . . the 1955 EAGLE . . . will be well accepted by you, the students . . . and that through it this past year . . . will be remembered often . . . and held high in your memories forever

Looking Back Upon . . .

Memorable thoughts will linger in the mind of each loyal Eagle . . . for Bell's beloved principal, Virgil Frampton . . . This June marks the 16th year "Turk" has been at Bell . . . guiding many on to fame and success . . . Graduating from Poly High . . . through Santa Barbara State College . . . UCLA, California, and USC . . . Mr. Frampton has gained the needed knowledge and training to successfully lead 1900 students . . . The entire student body wishes "Turk" much happiness in his remaining years at Bell High . . .

EMPLOYMENT OFFICE: Our student body is very fortunate to have a man like Mr. Albert Bird as its employment coordinator. He is very helpful in advising students as to what they might be best at for an occupation as well as handling all work permits. He is shown here with two of his competent student secretaries (left to right), RoDonna Coker and Margie Leasure.

DRIVER'S TRAINING: Phyllis Housley gets her first lesson from our fine driver's training instructors, Mr. Elmer Warner and Mr. Daniel Conforti.

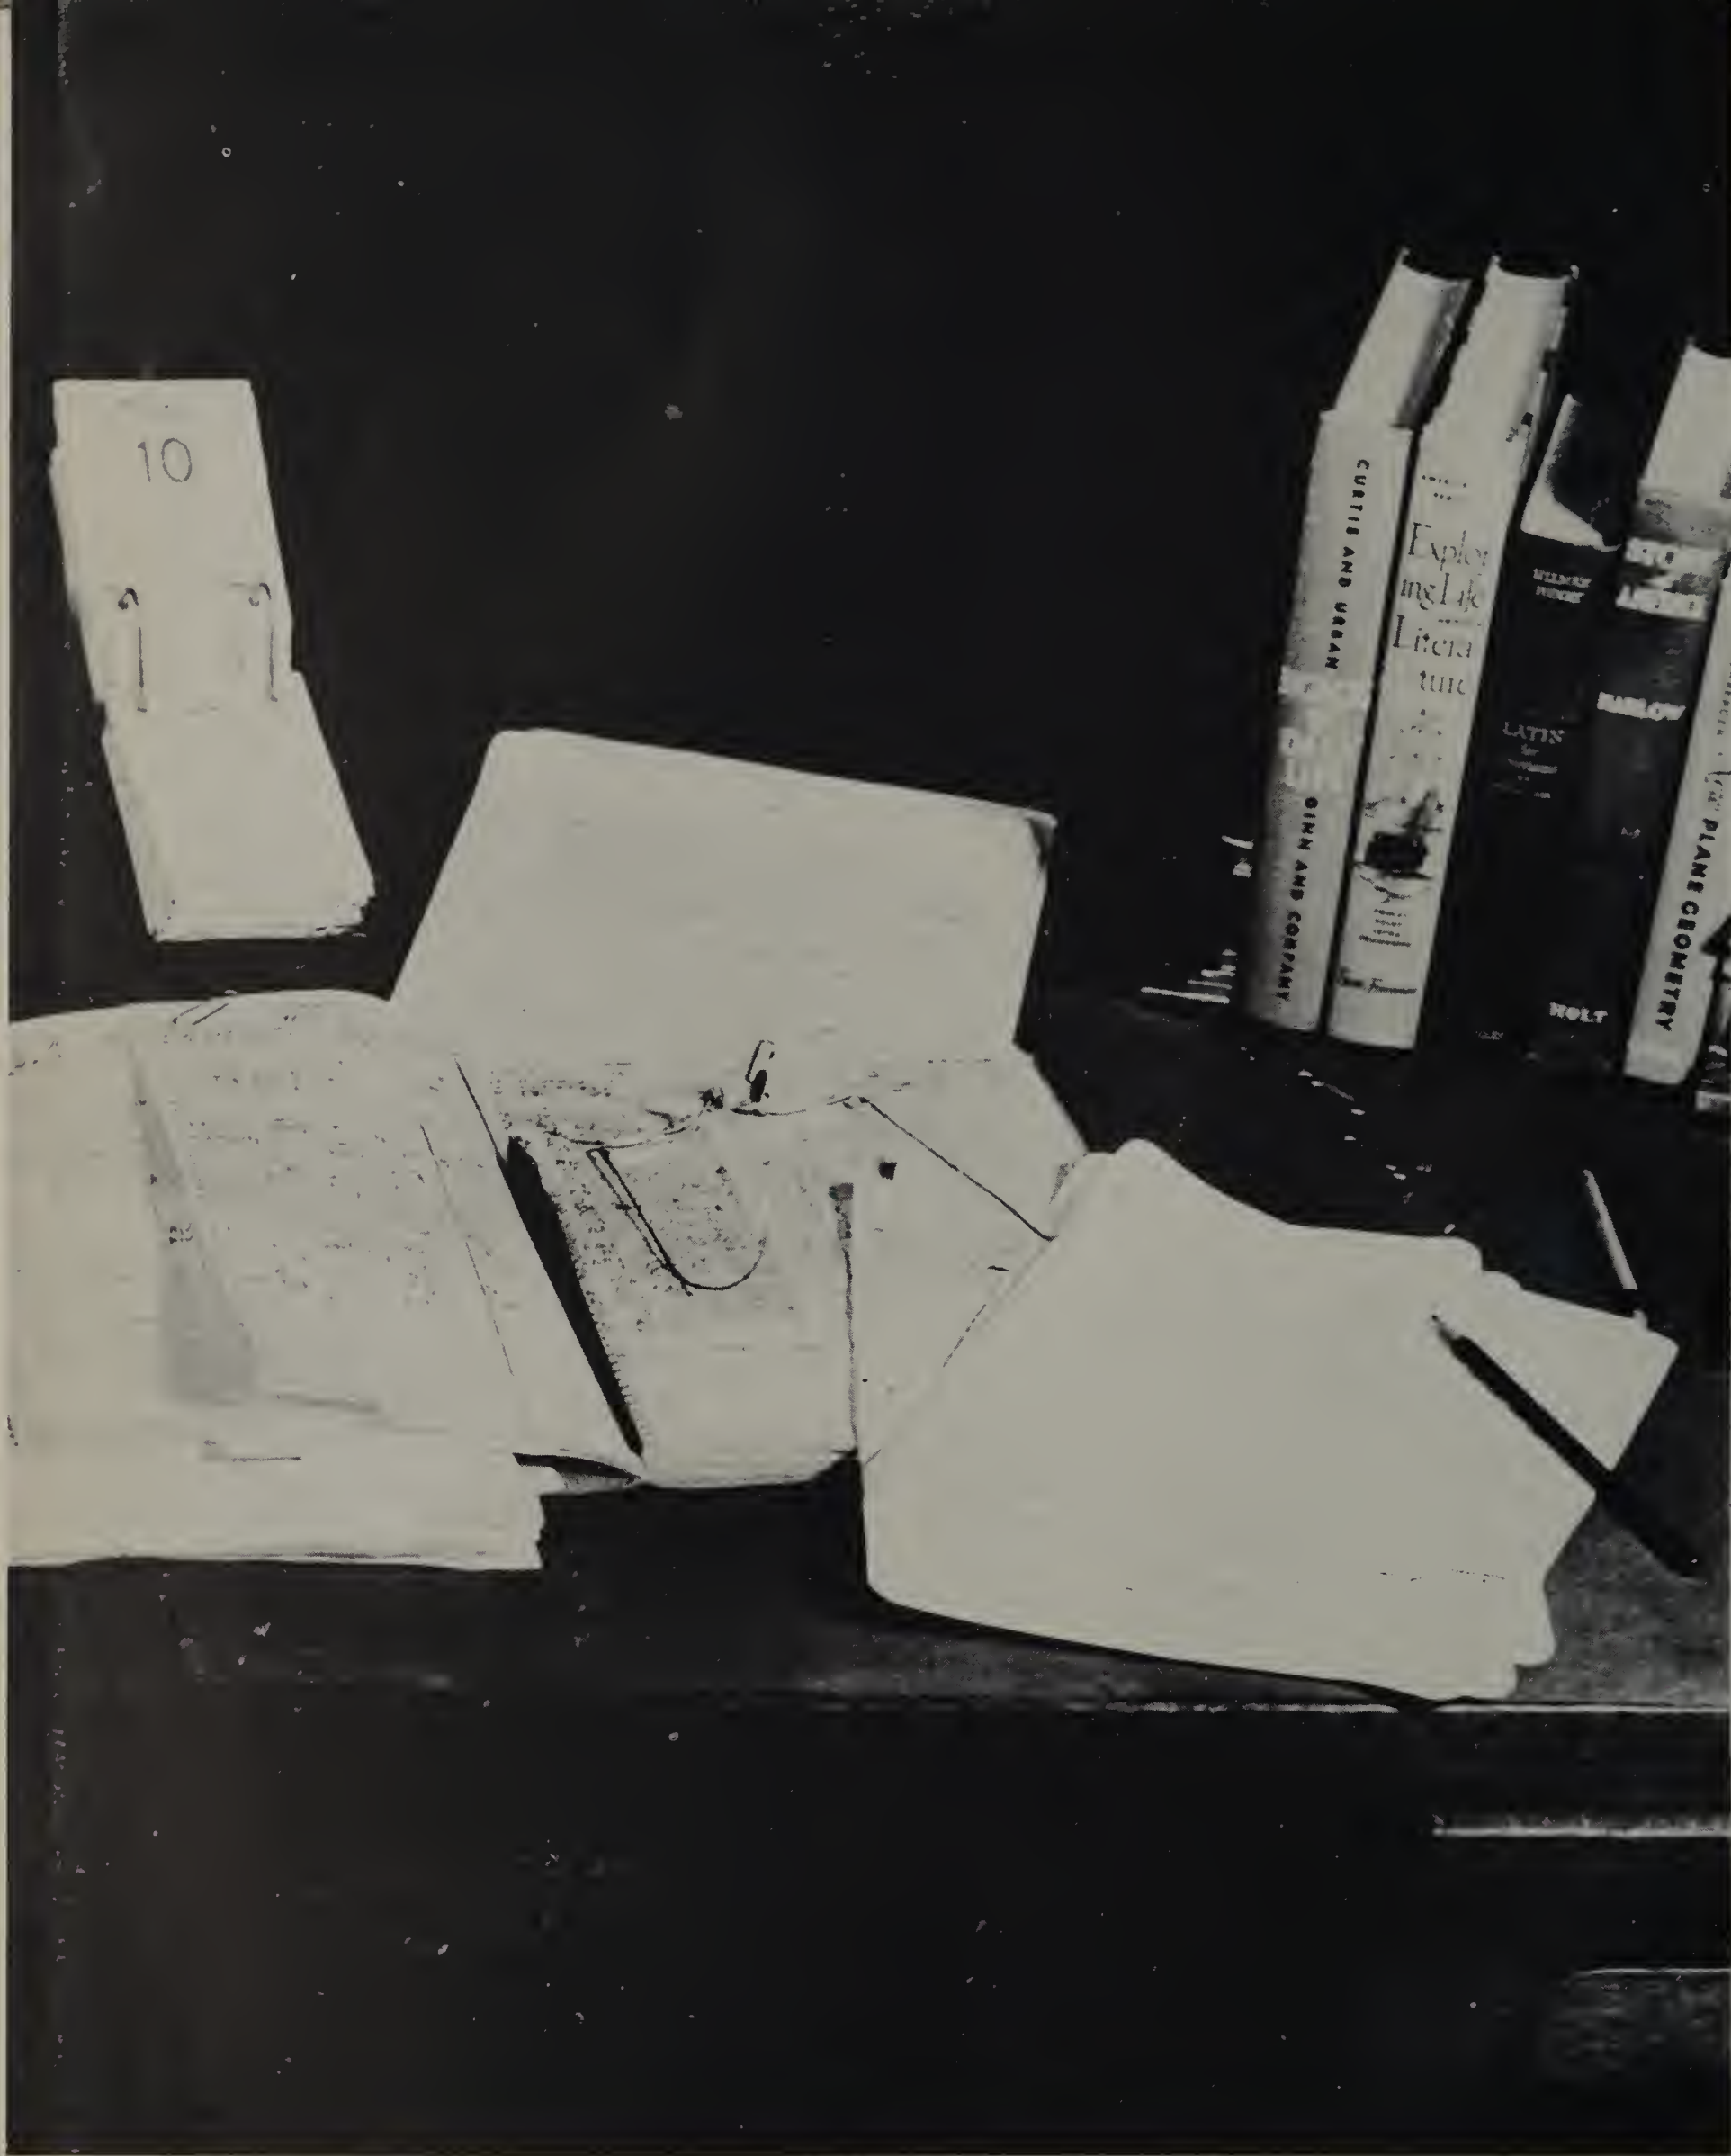

P.T.A.: The members of Bell's Parent-Teacher Association look on as a speaker supplies a bit of humor at one of their interesting meetings. We are proud of this group, which has furnished us with assemblies and aided the entire student body throughout the year.

OFF GUARD: Faculty members caught off guard; laughing at a movie; receiving a gift; chatting over a problem; enjoying a special luncheon; entertaining the staff.

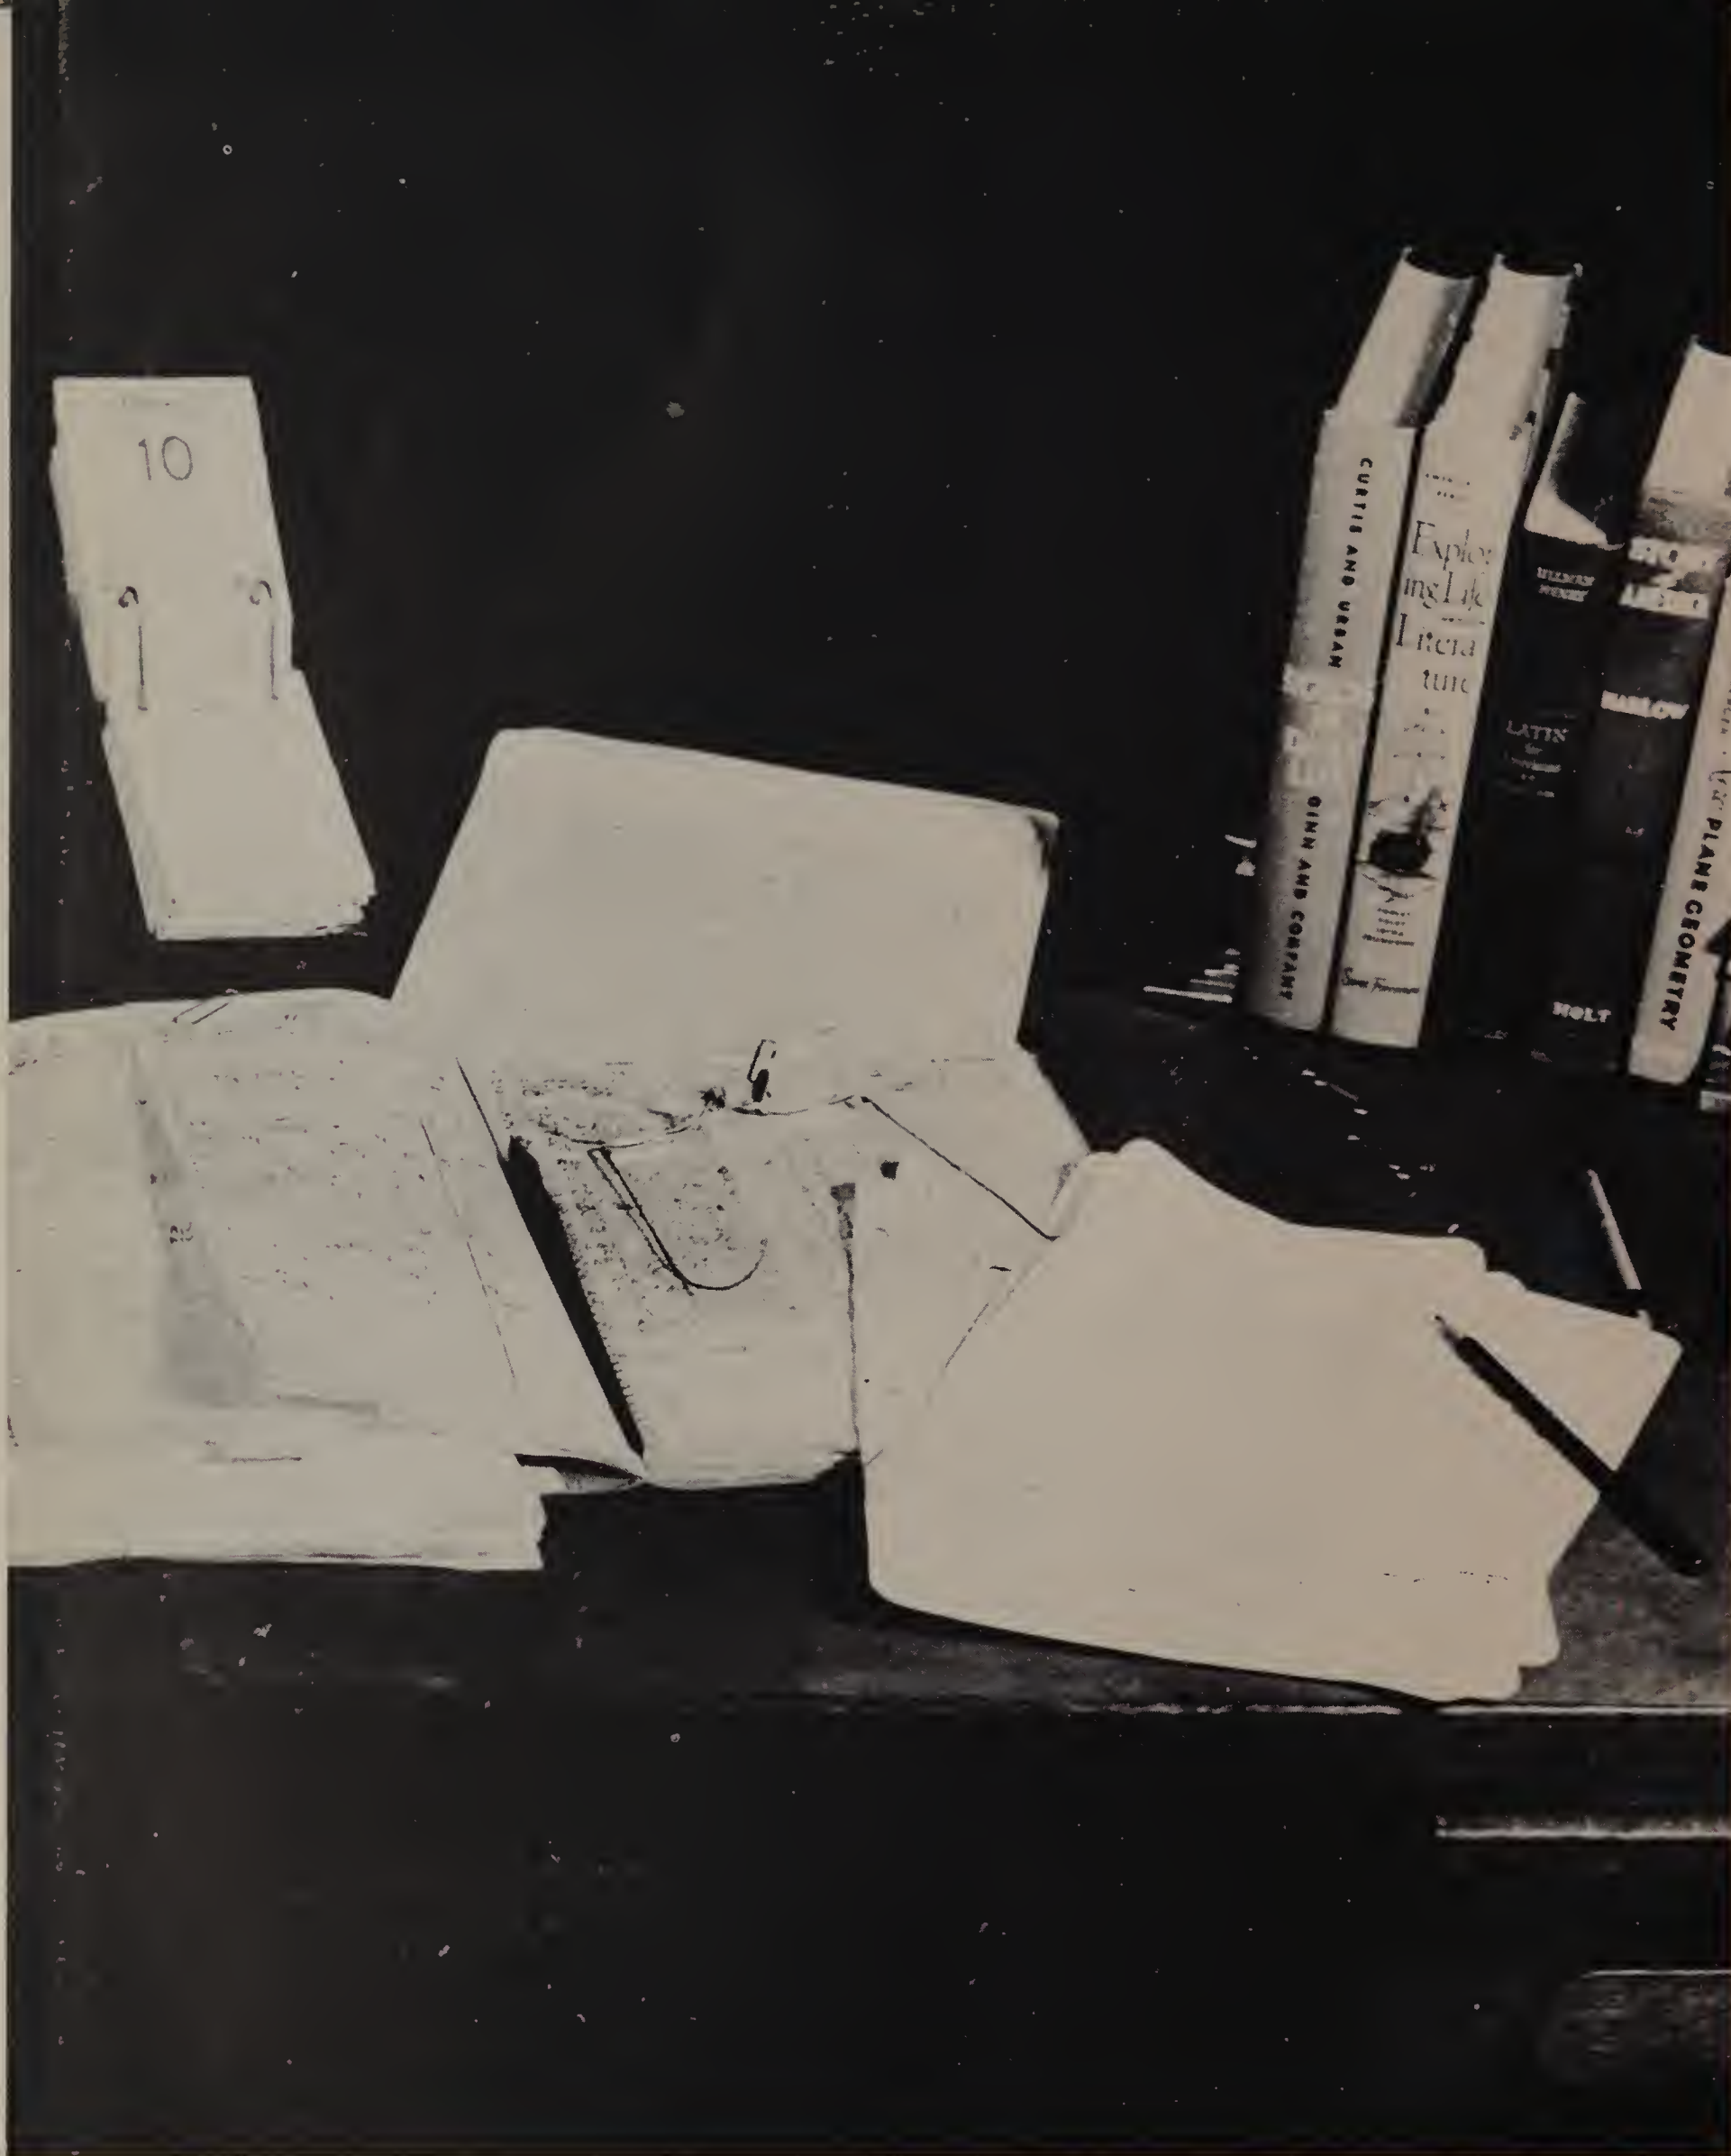

Their desks were ever crowded with our papers ably wrought,
Though they often gave our scribblings not the grade we sought,
 They guided,
 They chided,
 We heard them, we observed them.
So now in our memories they leave a pleasant thought. . . .

End of a Perfect Day

Low Lights, Soft Music . . .

Prom couple enjoy dancing to merry melodies as they climax their "golden days at dear Bell High."

Climaxing a year of fun and excitement . . . "Emerald Enchantment" found over 110 Senior couples . . . dancing amidst the bejeweled dance floor at the 1955 Senior Prom . . . Al Harding and his orchestra provided music for the evening . . . supplemented by the giving of several door prizes . . . The Moulton Rouge and the Cocoanut Grove later found many of the couples ending the exciting evening. . . .

... Tempting Snacks, Gay Times

All's well with the Senior Bee's as they receive their long awaited coral sweaters.

"You, You, You", is the song as Gloria, Jeanne, Charlene, and Beverly serenade the S'55 sweater.

Jack Wren looks well satisfied with his new sweater, while Grady Butler has to stand up and show his off.

Kathy Nielsen renders a song for the Senior Breakfast.

Louise, Carol, Ida Mae, and Sharon are off for "Big Bear Lake" at the breakfast.

Honor Lies . . .

They're here! . . . They're here! . . . echoed through the halls as the S'55 class received their bright coral sweaters. . . . A delicious breakfast followed . . . and the movie "Robin Hood" helped carry out the "Disneyland" theme. . . . Three parties were held during the Senior Bee semester, one being a basketball game . . . the Bees winning over the Ayes. . . . January came and the Senior Bees became mighty Senior Ayes. . . . Senior picnic provided fun and frolic at Brookside Park . . . Two more parties and another basketball win over the Senior Bees took place. . . . "Emerald Enchantment," the beautiful Senior Prom, ended some glorious days for the graduating seniors . . . for five weeks later this class passed through the doors of Bell High . . . never to return as students. . . . Capable winter sponsors were Mrs. Dorothy McGovern and Mr. Al Bird. . . . Sponsoring the Senior Ayes were Mrs. Lucille Way and Mr. Ollie Coker. . . . Our thanks to you, the sponsors . . .

All sorts of crazy but wonderful fads were found around Bell this year . . . Cars were decked, cut, lowered and chanelled . . . the guys driving them seen in flat tops, peggars, sweaters . . . and now and then a pair of flashy bucks. . . . The gals really became buck fiends although the boys nicknamed them "fruit boots" . . . Rope beads usually graced the gals' necks . . . while bermuda shorts and skirts were seen at many parties . . . It was also the fashion to start another club, the Language Club, co-sponsored by Mrs. Cledith Gerard, Mrs. Lila Holguin and Mr. Manual Alcantar . . . A Pan-American Day assembly and an all-Spanish class party were some of the activities planned by cabinet . . . Ken Carpenter, president . . . David Weir, vice-president . . . Brenda Kelso, secretary . . . Howard Bowman, treasurer . . . Joe Leonard, sergeant-at-arms. . . .

THIS FABULOUS AND

All has not been a bed of roses in our world these past few months, yet there are many highlights to remember. Many things have happened. On the whole, as a nation, we have gone ahead, trying to better the lives of the 165,000,000 people. President Dwight D. Eisenhower has succeeded in his aims for peace. Once we had finished our homework, we'd go to the famous "Pike" at Long Beach, eating rides. There were so many fine films which we discussed in class. Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" was one. The ballad "Three Coins in the Fountain" continues to be one of our lingering favorites. We gave generously to help the Community Chest, Cross and the fight of the dimes. What a turnout we had when the Eagles were on Gene Norman's TV show.

WONDERFUL WORLD

We began the new term. When the Emmie awards were handed out, it wasn't any surprise that Dinah Shore and Perry Como got top honors for their singing. (You agree?)

Turning doubtfulness into confidence . . . Coach Steve Bianchi built the Eagles of 1954 into "the finest and strongest all-around team" he has ever coached . . . as they rambled undefeated to the league championship . . . However, the Eagles met defeat at the hands of Manual Arts in the city championship quarter-finals . . . Rick McKenzie was the top Eastern League scorer with 63 points . . . Steve Resnik was voted most inspirational and most valuable man on the squad . . . The All-League team was completely dominated by Eagles as nine of the Bell starters received recognition. . . .

. . . the Eagles Have the Ball

Rick McKenzie fights his way through a host of Narbonne tacklers with the help of Ray Ayers, Jerry Sinclair and Neal Isom.

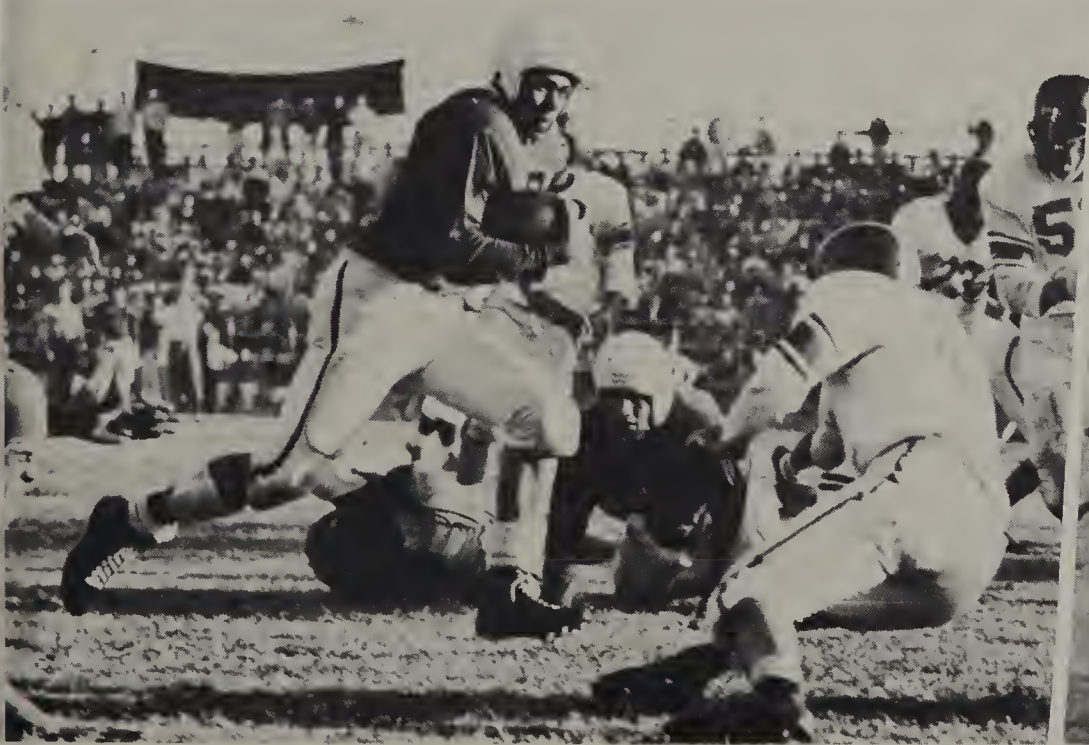

NARBONNE: Invading the Eagle lair for the 1954 season opener, the Gauchos were struck hard and fast as Bell ran to a 32-20 victory, outrushing Narbonne 230 to 130 yards. Halfback Rick McKenzie scored twice and converted twice.

Gary Myers looks on as a Wilson man nearly intercepts a pass from Jim Everett.

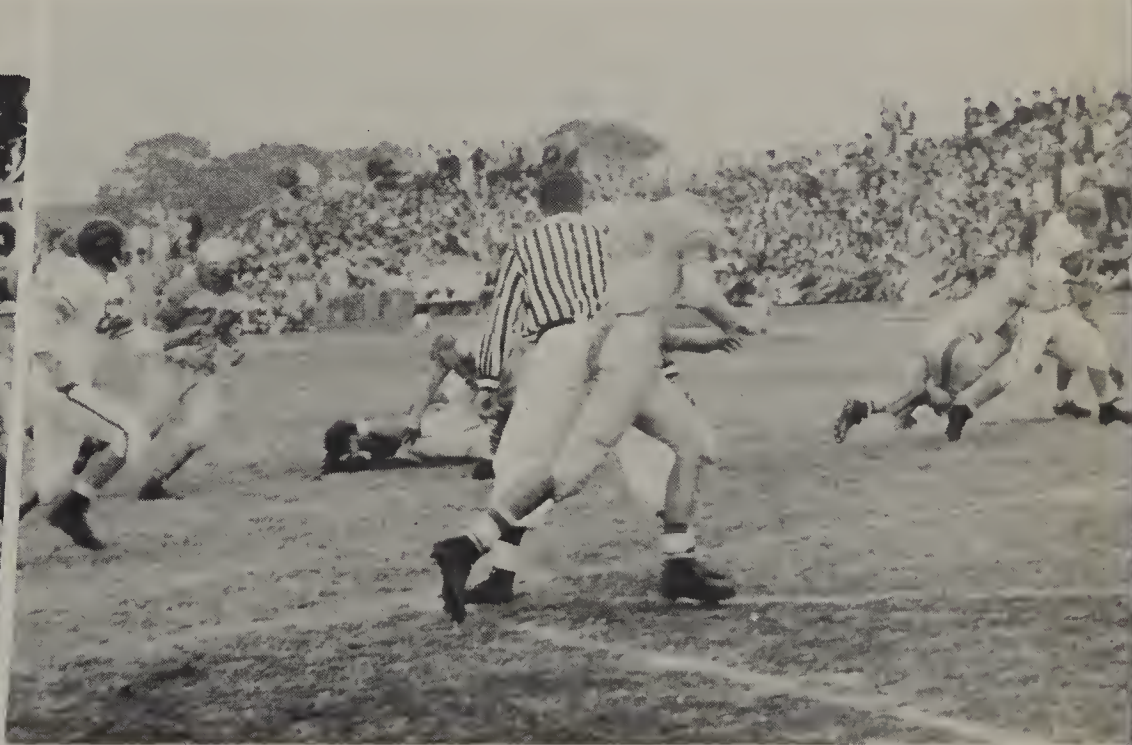

WILSON: Weakened by the absence of fullback Steve Resnik, the Eagles stepped into a powerful mule kick as Wilson capitalized on every Eagle error to grind out a 14-7 victory on the winner's field. Bell's lone tally came on an aerial from quarterback Jim Everett to end Gary Myers.

Rick McKenzie drags two men over for a touchdown after good down-field blocking from the great Eagle team.

BANNING: Regaining their strength and mighty form, Coach Steve Bianchi's Eagles set foot on the Pilot turf never to be headed nor phased. Led by Jim Everett's nine completed passes out of 18 attempts and a total of 110 yards, the Bell team rang out a 13-6 upset over highly rated Banning, thus capturing the P. T. A. Milk Bowl trophy won by Banning the previous year.

HUNTINGTON PARK: Feeling was high this afternoon as the white-clad Eagles strolled onto Reeves Field welcomed by the cheer of a bleacher-packed Homecoming crowd, primed by the beauty of the pre-game pageantry and parade. Bell was the favorite, and without a doubt established this fact, but not before an all-out battle was waged between the two cross-town rivals. Rick McKenzie and Steve Resnik scored on line plunges while Frank Brainard thrilled the stands with a swift 48-yard TD jaunt; and thus it was that the Spartans fell, 20-13.

TOP: Bob Blum snags a pass from Jim Everett for a touchdown against Belmont. BOTTOM: Rick McKenzie kicks the extra point for Bell in the final quarter of the South Gate game making the score 25-0 for Bell.

BELMONT: The Bell offense and defense combined beautifully to humble a small but spirited Sentinel squad. Jim Everett tossed two touchdown pitches to ends Bob Blum and Gary Myers. Rick McKenzie scored twice on short plunges, and Steve Resnik bulled his way 39 yards to pay dirt, as Bell blanked the Hilltoppers, 31-0.

SOUTH GATE: Gaining revenge for a plightful 6-0 defeat in 1953, Bell turned the South Gate Homecoming into a dreary day with a lopsided 25-0 victory, scoring in every quarter. Highlight of the afternoon came as the Eagles' defensive center, Jerry "Sinbad" Sinclair, picked off a Ram pass and ambled 16 yards to score.

POLYTECHNIC: An Eastern League championship and a clean league slate were dependent upon this meeting on Bell's turf. Appearing in their last game as a city high school, Poly was determined to finish on top, but Frank Brainard, with deceptive swivel hiping, streaked through the Mechanic line twice for scores, and Rick McKenzie took a TD pass from Jim Everett as the Eagles outscored the Mechanics 19-13. The game was decided by Bell's defensive forwards—Neal Isom, Dan Shonkwiler, George Foltz, and Jerry Sinclair. These sensational season stalwarts stymied Poly to 25 net yards gained.

MANUAL ARTS: In pairings for the city championship quarter-finals Bell drew a gruesome foe. Top rated in the city, the Toilers matching seemed reminiscent of the 1952 season. The two teams met on a rain-soaked El Camino JC gridiron and fought tirelessly, with Bell outgaining Manual 266 yards to 216, and grinding out 14 first downs to the Toilers' 6. But the scoreboard decided the final issue and the victor. The valiant Eagles fell 18-6 to the later city champs in what many termed as the "game of the year" in city prep ranks.

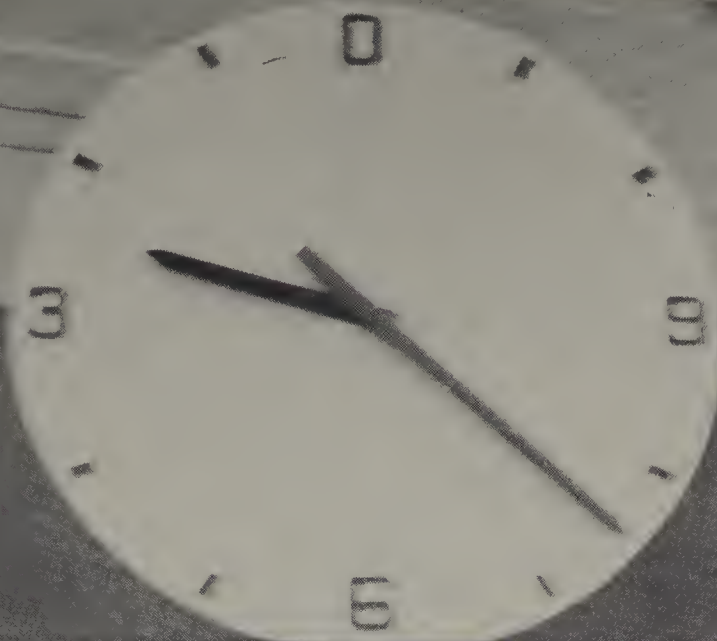

Courage Crowned with Championship

Rick carries the ball again as Ray Ayers plays a very important part by holding off Polytechnic opponents.

Frank-Brainard rambles for yardage as three Bell defenders trip up Manual Arts players in the city playoffs.

Opening workout day of Bell's Bee football team was visited by a high flying, winged vulture, presenting a bad omen . . . that the Eaglets found difficult to overcome throughout the entire season. . . . Aided by only four returning lettermen and just as few veterans . . . the Bees finished the year with the unimpressive record of no wins, five losses and two ties. . . . Because of the greenness of the squad, the spirit and ability was not ripened largely until the last of the season . . . when the South Gate Bees faced a ready, talented group of Bell gridsters in a game which surprised the experts. Marv Sherard, left halfback of the Eagle aggression, almost upset the appletart by breaking away on a TD gallop early in the first quarter . . . only to be caught from behind by a crosstown sprinter. . . . Though the Ramblers were within Bell's five yard line four times during the battle, they were unable to tally and the game went on record as a 0 to 0 deadlock. . . . Throughout the seven games, the talented toe of Ken Abrams, team conversionist, was called on but twice, both after touchdowns in the hands of team captain Joe Leonard. . . . Howard Bowman was on the receiving end of one touchdown pass against the Belmont invaders from Leonard . . . and the latter plunged the other six pointer against Wilson.

- - a Victory!

After dropping four straight practice games by lopsided scores . . . Bell's varsity basketball team, an entirely new squad under a new coach . . . won seven out of ten Eastern League contests . . . The Eagles notched second place in the league and drew a pairing with Dorsey in the city playoffs at Venice High . . . Heavily favored Dorsey was forced to come from behind in the waning moments of the final quarter . . . to eke out a very close and hard-fought victory . . . A towering 35-foot set-shot provided the winning margin, the Dorsey Dons scoring 53 to the Eagles 51 . . . Jim Frost, 6' 3" sophomore guard who placed on the third team in all-city lineups, led the Eagles throughout the season . . . scoring 148 points in ten league frays for an average of 14.8 . . . Senior forward Brent Dalrymple was next on the digit board with 64 points . . . Other predators on a vicious Eagle team were guard Ken Carpenter, center Ed Rush, and forward Tom Moore . . . Mr. Jerry Marvin, varsity and junior varsity coach, has done a splendid job during his first semester at Bell, coaching his team to its many victories . . .

Standing Up to the Best

BOTTOM RIGHT: Tom Moore of the Eagles goes in for a lay-up in the Poly game to score two digits. LEFT: Going, going, gone! Timer ready! . . . Climber ready! . . . and up the hemp goes the first gymnast! . . . The Eagle musclemen, continuing under Norman Friedman's well-appreciated direction, had an interesting season. . . . High scorer and captain, Jim Carroll, set a fine example for his team mates to equal. . . . Jim Neubauer performed well on his specialty, the rings, while co-captain, Louie Carnevale, gave us a fine showing as he power-housed his way up the ropes. . . . Jim Frost displayed his style on the long horse and Ward Cumbie, although an all-around man, was a constant pointer on the high bar. . . . With so many returning Lettermen, prospects for next season are bright indeed. . . .

Clear the Track . . .

Riis' Vikings took a bow before the mighty Eagle ovalmen . . . marking Bell's first win of the season . . . on the Eagle's home roost, April 15 . . . Highlights of the meet were made by Bill Davis. . . . who snapped the tape in the mile by running a 4:58.9 . . . and John Todd who made a totally unexpected pole vault of 11 feet, 3 inches . . . tying for first place . . . The score was almost deadlocked throughout the whole meet . . . and it ended with a decisive relay in which Bell emerged victorious . . .

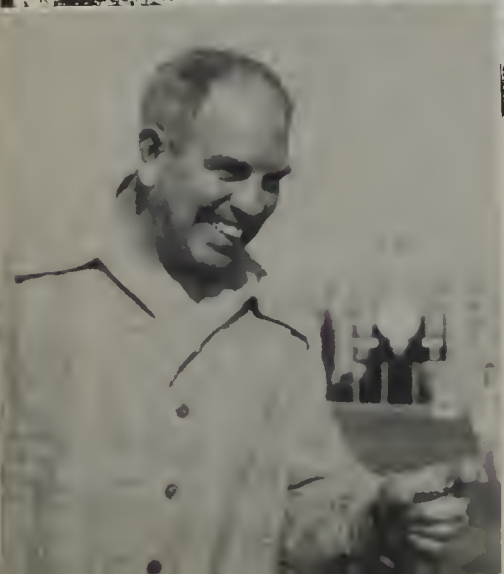

Bell High's Eagles, battered and worn . . . rested after a hard-fought season of track and field events . . . with a record of two wins and four losses . . . Jeff Young, high and low hurdle sprinter . . . accelerated the low hurdles in 20.7 while the high ones were captured in 15.8 seconds . . . Ron Pierce, ace pole vaulter . . . vaulted 11 feet, 6 inches against the Huntington Park Spartans . . . making a dangerous threat to the school record of 12 feet, 4 1/2 inches . . . Jerry Pepper, Eagle high jumper, broke an even 6 feet against Belmont. . . a feat not often accomplished by high school trackmen . . .

The locker room was jammed with our athletes fairly steaming,
The shower's on; they're singing, they're soaping, they're screaming.
Helmets rested,
Shoes nested.
While we chattered of scores that mattered,
We left phys. ed. always scrubbed and forever beaming.

The school day is concluded and the students have left the halls,
Our lockers stand a vigil for our many future calls.
 We tapped,
 We slapped,
 We wooed them, we hewed them.
But open they would though frequent were their stalls.

Racing Through

JULY

This was the month for the beach. Here Bellites greet their pals at the California shores. For some, July meant study. Summer school was the place we met many new friends as well as getting some of those tiresome solids out of the way.

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

AUGUST

Summer school came to a close, which led many Bell coeds to the High Sierras for a restful weekend. These Bel boys find the early morning breeze to be quite chilly.

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

SEPTEMBER

September brought students, new and old, to the school that's "Best in the West." The Kickoff Ball started the year rolling and the football boys goaling.

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

OCTOBER

The competitive football season began, and brought G. A. A. into full swing. Hockey champs fought it out one afternoon in a G. A. A. battle. This month was climaxed by the Quill and Scroll sponsored Spook Hop.

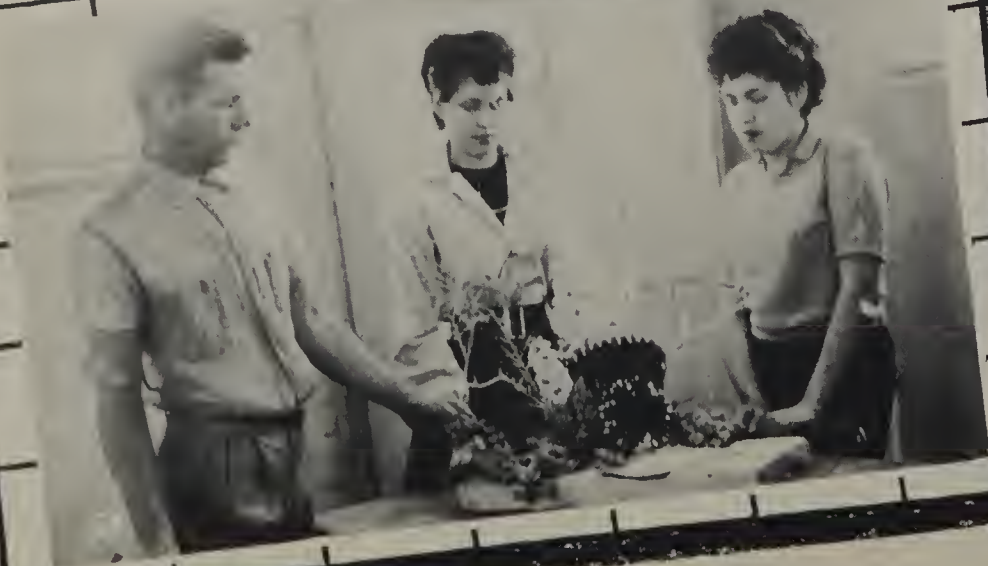

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

NOVEMBER

Flower arrangers worked overtime on decorations for Thanksgiving events. The senior play "Arsenic and Old Lace" took to the boards. S'55 class got their coral sweaters, and the Sadie Hawkins dance added to this month's excitement.

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

DECEMBER

December brought the first annual Snow Ball "Mistletoe Music." This winter formal proved to be a huge success. The Christmas program, featuring our choral groups, was something that couldn't be forgotten.

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

a Fabulous Year

JANUARY

Varied feelings were expressed as report card time rolled around. They revealed the result of a semester's study plus a week of finals. Senior Bees sponsored the Farewell Ball for departing winter grads—then came Senior Vespers and graduation.

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

FEBRUARY

February brought new student government leaders. Popular Calvin was cheered as he bowed out of the office of Student Body President, while Ronnie was welcomed in as our new boss. "Cupid's Capers" provided wonderful dancing for many Bellites.

MARCH

Gymnastics, track, and baseball are in full swing. The St. Patrick's Day turnabout, "Kalarney Kapers," was enjoyed by many and the W'56 class received their aqua sweaters.

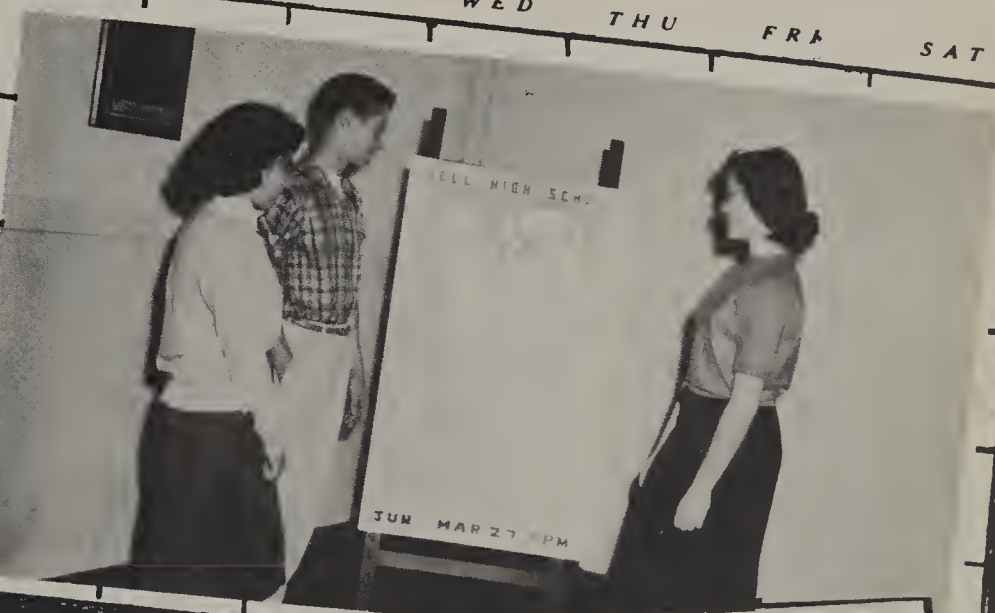

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

APRIL

With April comes Easter, with Easter comes vespers. Once again the choral groups proudly performed. The Coronation Ball was its usual success.

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

MAY

May made us think of bright summery cottons. This was the reason for Cotton Day, followed by the Cotton Cord. The Senior Prom and picnic climaxed the S'55 Seniors' year of activity.

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

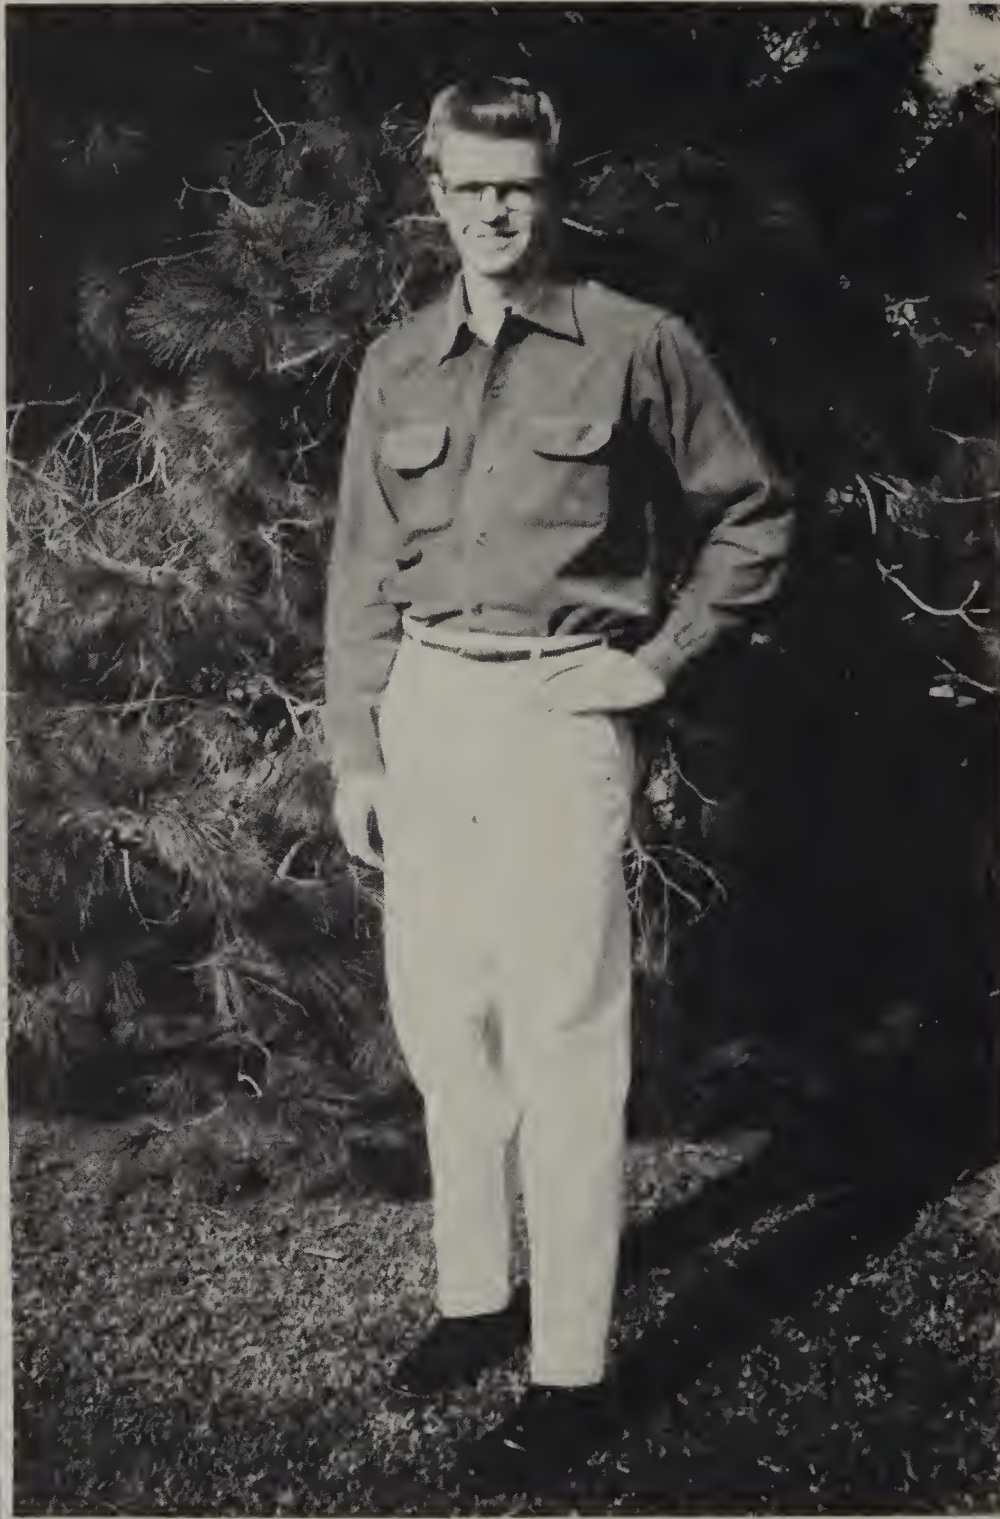

JUNE

The time has come! Some must go and others stay. We bid our grads fond farewell and prepare for a summer of fun and frolic. It was a wonderful year!

Ballroom Glances

Ah, those evenings in which we tripped the light fantastic. . . Slacks pressed, dresses ironed . . . all aglow under the dim lights of the dance pavilion . . . Remember the night of the first dance, the Kickoff Ball, honoring our football team? . . . October brought the Spook Hop with many couples dancing amidst the skeletons and pumpkins . . . Queen Carol Nichols and King Bob Rounds highlighted the beautifully decorated CIO Hall for Cupid's Capers . . . Saint Patrick's Day offered another memorable evening while Cotton Day queen was the ruler over the annual Cotton-Cord dance . . . Yes, we have fond memories of these beautiful affairs . . .

Royalty Reigns . . .

. . . with Majestic Grandeur

Beautiful Queen Barbara is congratulated by our principal, Mr. Frampton, as alumni president looks on approvingly.

Mighty W'55 graduates display their artistic talents by this fine float.

Floats, bands, equestrians . . . Queen Barbara and her six beautiful princesses . . . packed stands, and a winning football team all banded together to make the 1954 Homecoming the best in Bell's 30-year history . . . In the years to come many will reminisce over "Round Up Time" . . . and recall many thrilling moments during this day of days . . .

And here come the Ladies! "Senorita" Janet and "Senor" Billie Sue enjoy a nice burro ride.

Here's the show!

Autumn Leaves Fall . . .

All the Lil' Abners and Daisy Maes swing around the floor Dogpatch style.

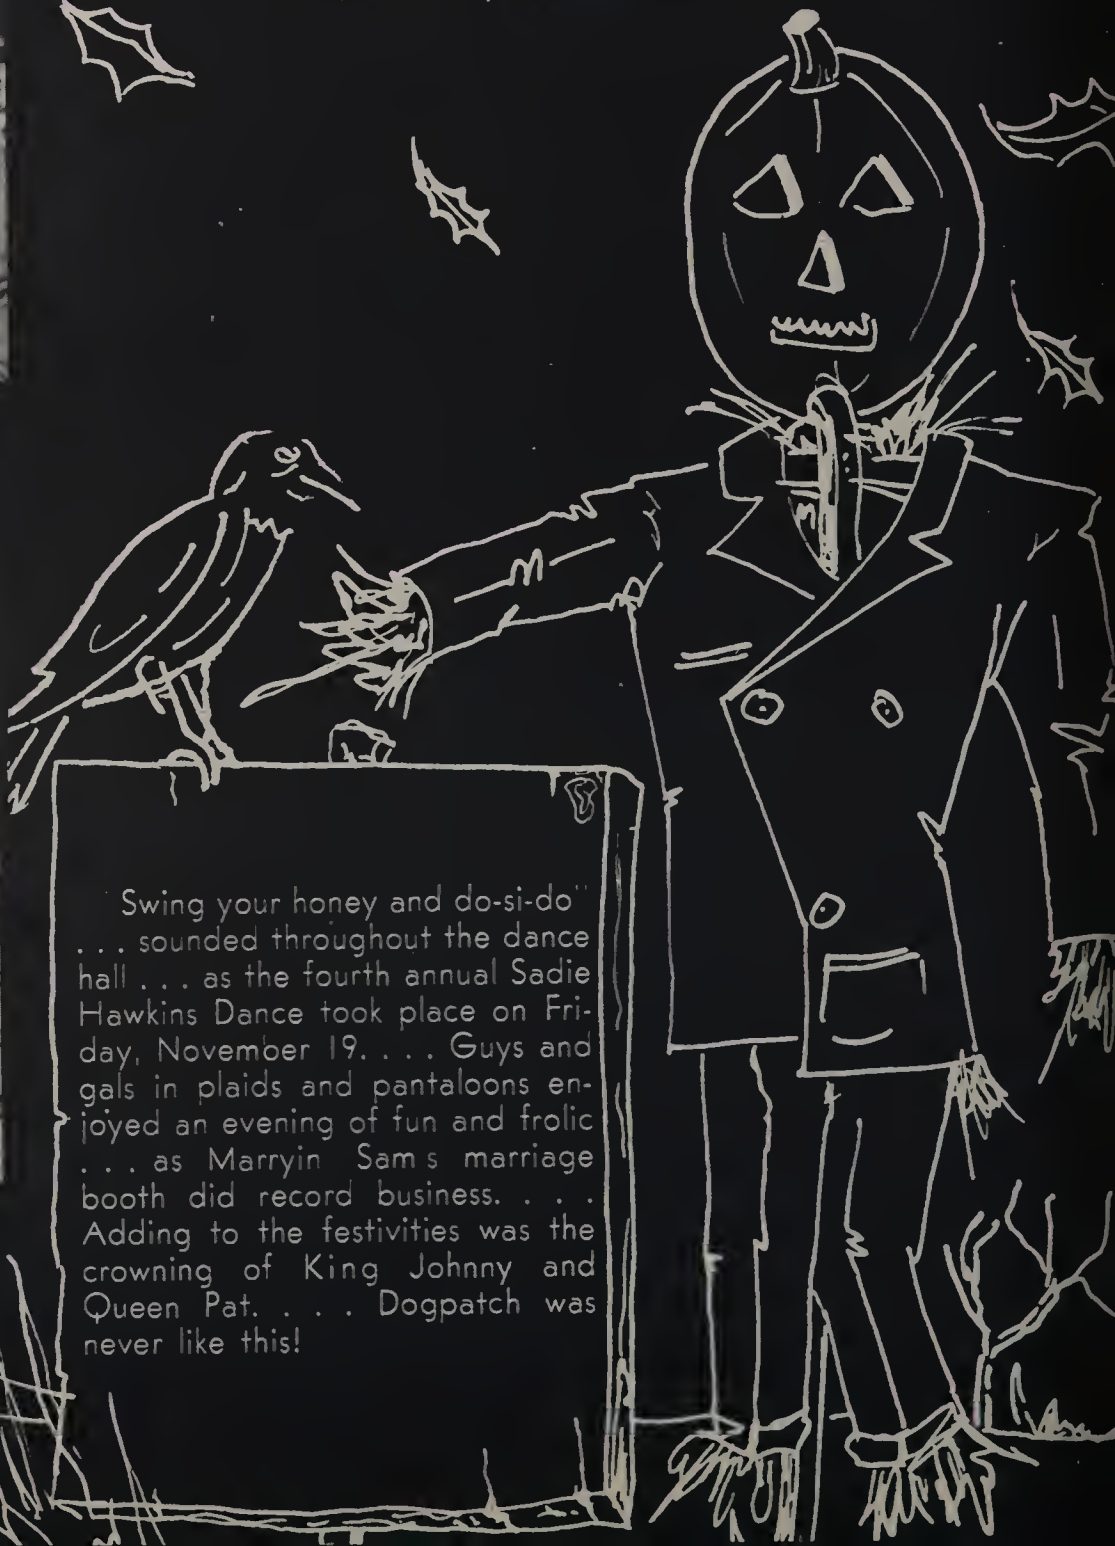

Walt witnesses the official signature of Mr. Evans, that ties the bonds between Ron Hales and Pat Bell, Sadie fashion.

Just a farm boy at heart, Jimmy looks like he's an old timer at this sort of thing, but maybe Kaye thinks she could give him a lesson or two.

Dogpatch characters become alive in the form of Johnny Lamb and Pat Murphy, crowned King Abner and Queen Daisy Mae.

"Swing your honey and do-si-do" . . . sounded throughout the dance hall . . . as the fourth annual Sadie Hawkins Dance took place on Friday, November 19. . . . Guys and gals in plaids and pantaloons enjoyed an evening of fun and frolic . . . as Marryin Sam's marriage booth did record business. . . . Adding to the festivities was the crowning of King Johnny and Queen Pat. . . . Dogpatch was never like this!

... Snow Lands Call

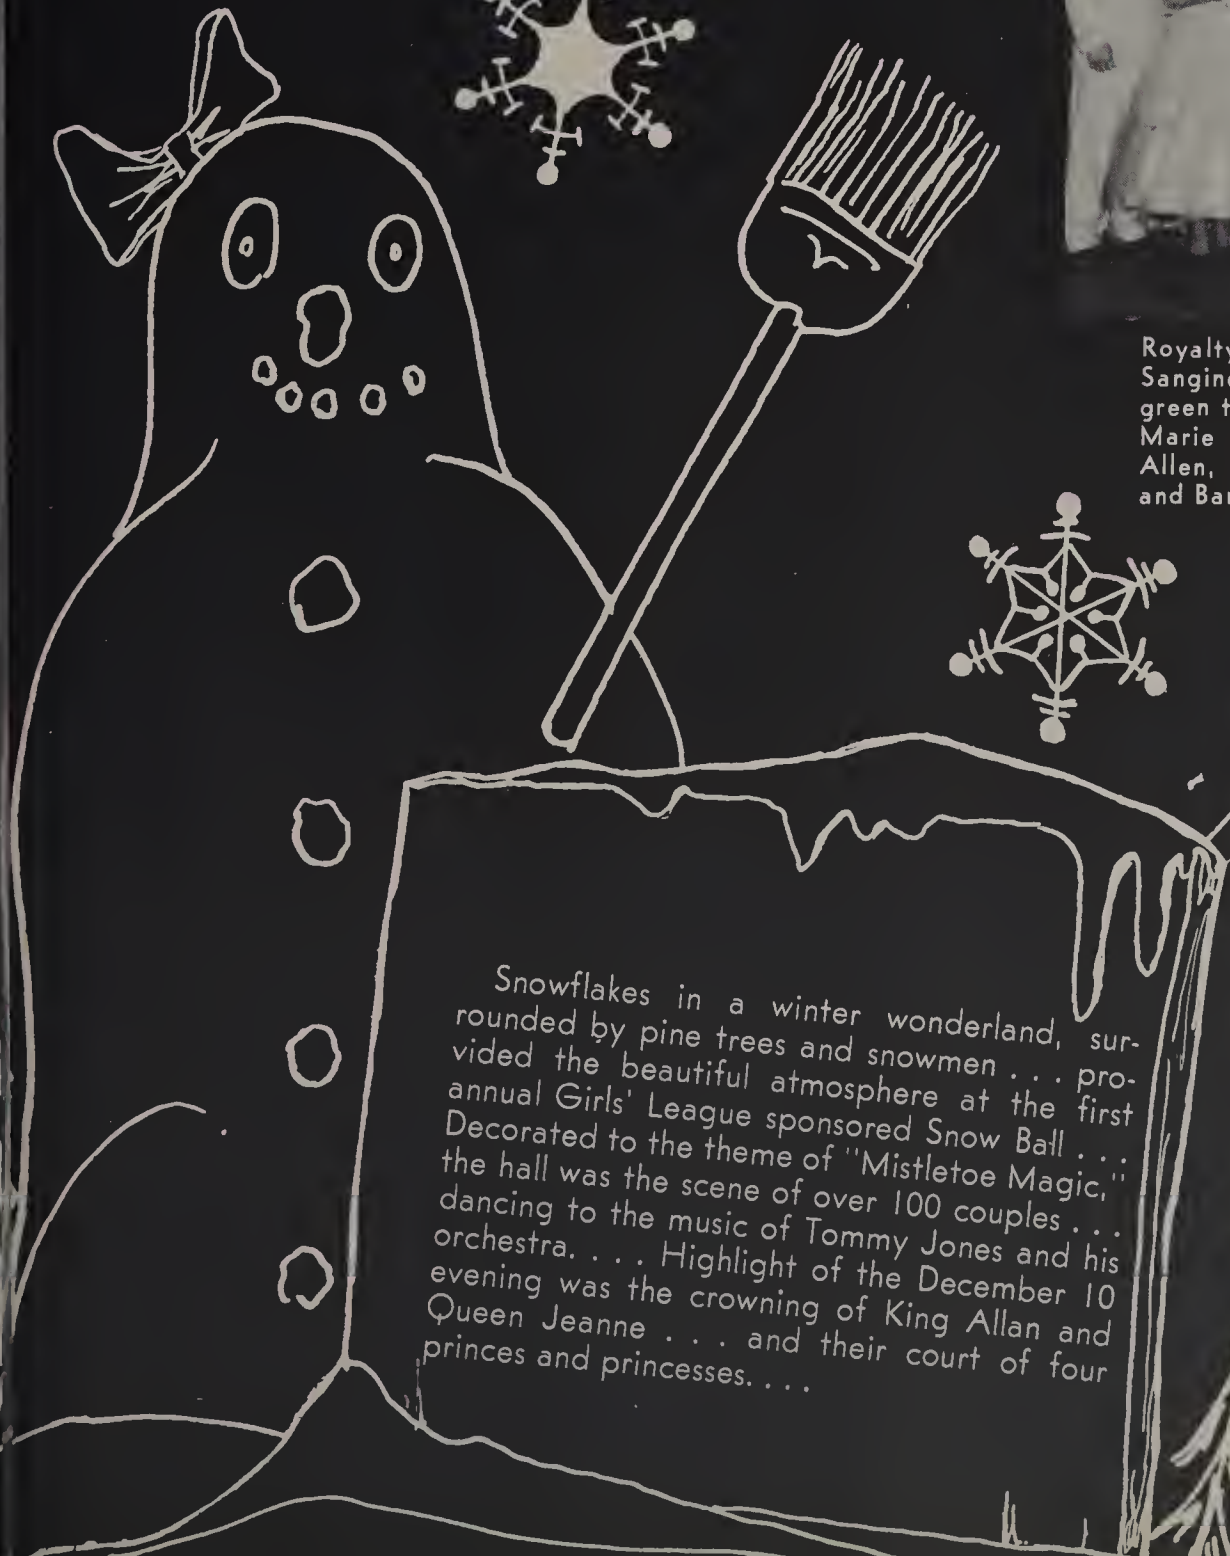

Whirling in a winter wonderland, Bell couples enjoy the evening by dancing while Connie and Dave watch the birdie.

The magic of mistletoe shows its power as couples dance to the dreamy music of Tommy Jones and his band.

Royalty reigned in the persons of Snow Ball Queen and King, Jeanne Sangineto and Allan Arthur. The court, crowned amidst the evergreen trees and snowflakes, were (left to right) Ricky McKenzie and Marie Weaver, Bob and Diane McGinnis, Queen Jeanne and King Allen, Marlene Rasmussen and Calvin Brown, and Irene Martinez and Barth Bybee.

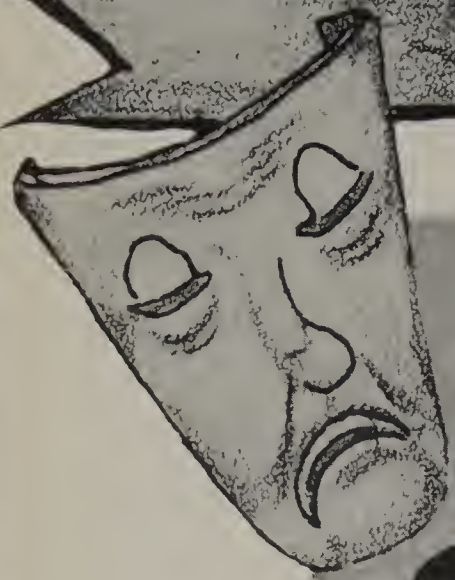

Snowflakes in a winter wonderland, surrounded by pine trees and snowmen . . . provided the beautiful atmosphere at the first annual Girls' League sponsored Snow Ball . . . Decorated to the theme of "Mistletoe Magic," the hall was the scene of over 100 couples . . . dancing to the music of Tommy Jones and his orchestra . . . Highlight of the December 10 evening was the crowning of King Allan and Queen Jeanne . . . and their court of four princes and princesses . . .

Punch and cookies, refresh Snow Ball couples, Jackie, Bob, Janice and Jim. That's enough Jim, these other fellows want some.

Putting words to music, Dan Laycox composes theme music as author Nancy Womack goes over script.

A Korean frontier was the setting for the Senior play, "Greasepaint Warriors," a gay, scintillating musical comedy . . . written by one of Bell's literary geniuses. . . . Glenda McMinn as Barbara and Virgil Curry as Randy . . . are members of a USO troop fresh from Hollywood. . . . The music and drama departments combined their talents to bring before the school this delightful show. . . . Others in the cast included Paula de Beauclair, Mary Kaye Massie, Carol Nichols and Klair Bybee.

Just what Diane has been looking for . . . and Carol agrees that those crazy pedal-pushers from People's Department Store at 4400 East Gage Ave., in Bell. . . . will be in style at the beach . . . park . . . or anywhere else the kids go this summer. . . .

A good newspaper . . . makes a better community. . . . This hard-working staff . . . alert and always on the job . . . brings us our Bell-Maywood Industrial Post from 4313 East Gage Ave., in Be. with an up-to-date and full coverage of all news . . . sports . . . and social events. . . .

"Chivalry isn't dead yet" . . . at least that's what Maureen thinks . . . Could it be that Wayne and Klair performed this gentlemanly act because they've already had one of the delicious . . . Frosties . . . from Foster's Old Fashioned Freeze at 6900 Atlantic Blvd., in Bell . . . and don't want to seem piggish when coming back for seconds. . . .

Maybe Sharon's dreaming of that day when Johnnie will come marching home . . . but she doesn't want to wake up because this beautiful wedding gown from Nancy Hamilton's at 6616 Pacific Blvd., in Huntington Park . . . makes everything seem so real. . . .

Our parents and teachers . . . working together to help us, the students . . . build a fuller . . . more successful life. . . . Our hats are off . . . to you, the P. T. A., our Parent-Teacher Association of Bell High School. . . .

We Buy, They Sell

Jim can't think of just the right thing to say to Janice . . . but he's confident that the flowers he's sending from . . . MAY FLORIST, 4308 GAGE AVE., in BELL . . . will tell her just what he's thinking . . . the right way . . .

Our Eagle Flies Toward Home

The EAGLE staff gathers around for last minute proofing, before they turn everything in at the April deadline, to their capable right hand. L. A. ENGRAVING COMPANY at 418 EAST PICO BLVD., in LOS ANGELES, who lithographed the mighty Bell High EAGLE in time for you to see it now in June . . .

To Mr. Mautner
 all you next semester,
 Betty Cox
 (Bramley)

Autographs

Dear Mr. Mautner
 I have had you for a year now and I think you are very nice I hope I have you for a long time

Good Luck
 and Best Wishes
 Ellen Seeger

To Mr Mautner
 Way out South where the palm trees grow an ant stepped on an elephants toe the elephant with tears in his eyes said 'why don't you pick on someone your own size.'

Lois Travers

Good Luck
to a good man.

Donald Bleach

Autographs

To a fine man who really taught me how to play the clarinet. Best of luck

Don Wren

To you from Me for a
Happy Mother's Day
Bill Sussner

To a real sharp cookie who knows how to play the Beat.

P.S. We had fun this semester, I'm sorry I can't be in next semester.

Ron Seigel

Tons of luck to a real crazy ☐

Pomie Smith

To a good teacher have fun this summer
William Rubottom

Lots of Luck
to a very fine teacher from a will
Loretta Burton

To my favorite Teacher
Mr. Martner.

Dear Mr. Martner.

I have enjoyed having you
for a teacher for these past 2 semesters.
I wouldn't know if I would take Jr.
Over over. if that's the way you abbo. it, I would like to take it because of the grades
I have been getting. This is the only room
I get B in.

With all my Love.

YOUR SHIP OF DREAMS

Over 125 couples followed footsteps to posters announcing the S'55 Senior Prom at the Downey Women's Club . . . There on May 13 they sailed on their ship of dreams . . . stopping at the galley for refreshments and then programming their dances for the swashbuckling music of Al Harding's band . . . Sparkling nets and sequined sea life provided apt background for the enchanted gaiety that followed . . . Many seafaring couples sailed on to the Moulin Rouge and Cocoanut Grove where they enjoyed an evening of entertainment, dinner and dancing. . . . For the first time door prizes were given out by Janet Boxdorfer and Spike Lunn, class presidents, who were indeed proud of the overwhelming success of their Senior Prom . . .

Leaving Golden Days ...

5:45 P. M. — Address of welcome to this memorable occasion is given by Janet Boxdorfer, S'55 class president.

5:30 P. M. — Diane and Van lead the procession, on Reeves Field to the orchestra's strains of "Pomp and Circumstance".

5:40 P. M.—The processional is almost over as the last students march through the trellised archway; then the class remains standing for the "Star Spangled Banner" and invocation.

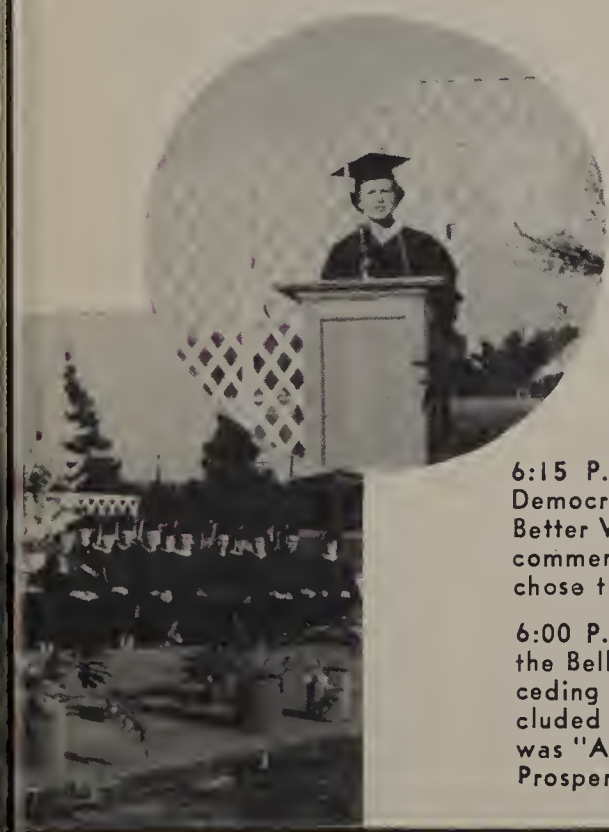

... To Embark on Newer Ways

Coral and white tassels waved in the breeze as 196 S'55 graduates marched out on Reeves Field to climax their golden years at Bell . . . Many agreed that this was the most outstanding class to receive the treasured parchments . . . the class boasting 14 Sealbearers and many other high honors . . . "The World of Tomorrow" themed graduation speeches with Lorraine Dageforde orating on health, safety and recreation . . . Eugene Wilson, prosperity . . . Jeanne Sangineto, science . . . Billie Sue Cundiff, international cooperation . . . and Tacy Adams, democracy . . . Pasadena Athletic Club was later the scene of the first grad-night party . . .

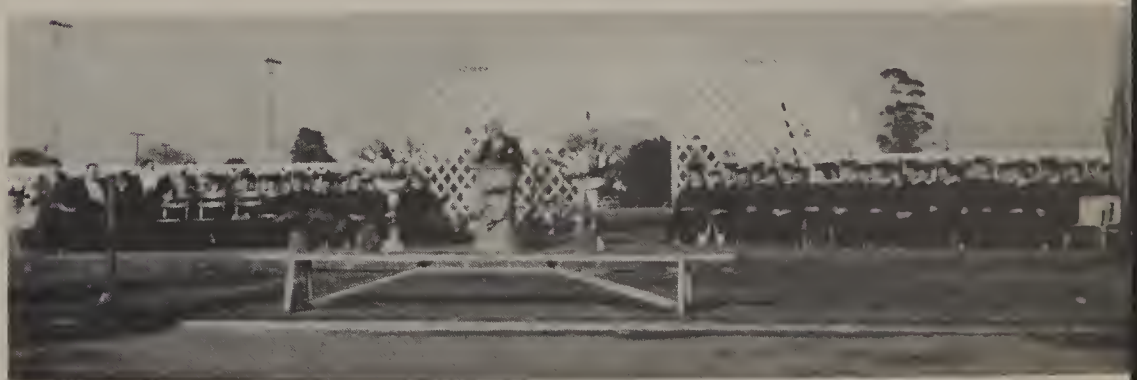

6:40 P. M. — After receiving her diploma from Mr. Arthur Andresen, Director of Assignments of the Los Angeles City Schools, Carol Nichols receives the customary handshake from Mr. Frampton as the rest of the class awaits diplomas. After moving tassels to left side of cap, the 196 Seniors sang the beautiful alma mater as a climax to their last activity as a part of Bell High.

6:15 P. M. — TOP: "The Practice of Democratic Ideas Will Guarantee a Better World" was the subject on which commencement speaker Tacy Adams chose to convey her ideas.

6:00 P. M. — BOTTOM: Selections by the Bell A Cappella choir are sung preceding graduation speakers, which included Eugene Wilson, whose discourse was "An Expanding Economy Will Bring Prosperity"

6:25 P. M. — Principal Virgil Frampton introduces Ephebian, Sealbearers, Scholarship Society members, scholarship and B'nai B'rith winners along with those having perfect attendance to the many relatives and friends present for the rite.

MAY

Lots of exciting things happened this month. Senior Prom, first annual Motorama, Cotton Day and Cotton-Cord Dance, "Grease-paint Warriors" and more, too!

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

Marie Weaver was chosen to reign over the annual Cotton Day ceremonies. The queen's court was comprised of (left to right) Peggy Millsap, Virginia Vernia, Shirley Chism and Geri Pulone.

Junior High Cotton Day throne was held by Julie Sample

JUNE

School is finally over! The mighty Seniors spent their last day in the hot sun practicing for that long awaited graduation while the "younger children" were happy to receive report cards. EAGLES were also seen all about campus after their June 13 debut.

Billie Sue practices her speech (left) while the class marches off the field so they can once again go through the graduation ceremony.

Fun and Frolic ...

Wesley La Clear was proud indeed when his Chevrolet was announced sweepstakes winner of the first Motorama.

No, you aren't seeing twins! The girls just don't want anyone else to get that special guy so they think the look-alike trick will keep the others away.

Happy times such as those had at Bell during May and June could never be forgotten . . . Ron Hales turned his honorable position as student body president over to capable Barth Bybee in one of the best student body elections ever held Nancy Womack was very proud when "Greasepaint Warriors", the musical written by her, was well received by the students . . . Marie Weaver and Julie Sample were happy as could be when announced Cotton Day queens and the Cotton Cord was a wonderful climax to the social whirl . . . "Emerald Enchantment" provided frolic for Seniors and their dates along with the gala picnic . . . Beautiful trophies were given to several Bellites as awards for their prize winning cars entered in the first Motorama Show . . . EAGLES were distributed and lots of signing done . . . and finally on June 17 at 5:30 P. M. another group of Seniors left the halls of Bell High to become men and women of the world . . .

This was the scene in room 241 as a few members of the '55 EAGLE staff and their adviser, Mr. Rowland worked until the wee hours of the morning getting all those black and turquoise yearbooks ready for you. You should have seen the room when all of the books were unpacked!

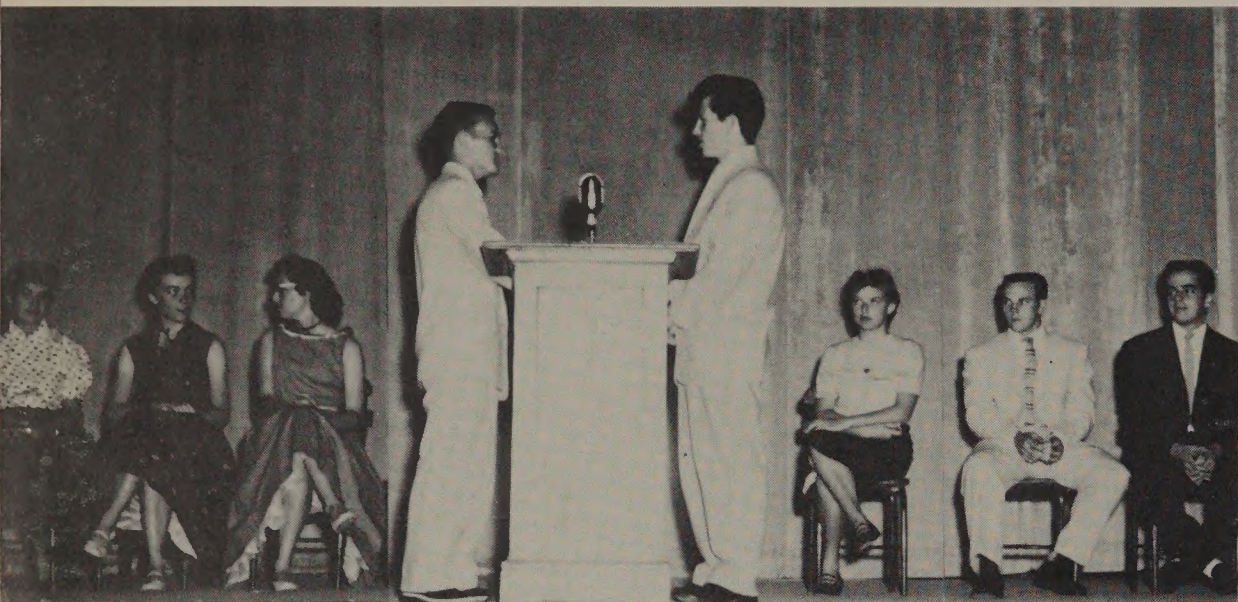

Nancy Womack was the happiest girl alive during the night performance of "Greasepaint Warriors". Nan, authoress of the musical, was presented with flowers sent by her brother in Phoenix.

"There is Nothing Like a Dame" comes from the mouths of these happy soldiers during "Greasepaint Warriors".

... Round Out Final Days

FRONT COVER: Two main highlights of a Senior's year are his Senior Prom and graduation ceremony.

BACK COVER: Seniors enjoy fun and frolic at annual Senior Picnic at Brookside Park — even Davy Crockett got in the act! Ron Hales offers congratulations after administering oath to next semester's student body president, Barth Bybee. It looks as if Glenda has Don kind of disgusted at her as they enact their roles in "Greasepaint Warriors". Cars, cars, and more cars were seen at Bell's first Motorama held on May 12 on Reeves Field.
